CANDIDATES.

Alexandria, Va., July 19, 1905
TO MY FELLOW CITIZENS OF ALEX-ANDRIA CITY AND COUNTY:
I beg to announce that I will be a candidate for the House of Delegates for the city and county of Alexandria subject to nomination by the democratic primary. It is well known to my fellow citizens that I was an appirant for the honor of lieutenant governor of Virginia, and that for reasons already mode known to the public I felt constrained to retire from that contest. When I did so I had no intention of becoming a candidate for renomination and re-election to the House of Delegates, until urged upon me by a large number of my fellow citizens of the city and county of Alexandria, whose wishes and friendship I felt under obligations to regard. After mature consideration and yielding to what I believe to be the wish of a large body of my fellow citizens and triends representing every interest in the community, I have concluded to stand for re-nomination and re-election. I have been twice honored with the election by my people as their representative in the General Assembly of Virginia, and trust that my past record in that body will be to them a pledge and assurance of my future conduct should it be their pleasure to return me to this post of honor. In the event of my nomination and election I pledge myself faithfully to guard and defend every interest of the city and county in which I have spent my life and in which are centered all my affections and interests. I respectfully solicit the endorsement and support of the people whom I have represented to the best of my ability in the two last Goneral Assemblies of Virginia. Very respectfully, juve 104.

Brutal Murder. A brutal murder was brought to light at Bishop, in the extreme northern part of Washington county, Pa., late yesterday evening, when the dead body of Joseph Barr, aged thirty-six, a coal miner, was found lying in his room with the skull literally crushed into a shapeless mass. The authorities have absoluted less mass. The authorities have seen lutely no clew to work upon to seeme the arrest of the murderer. Barr was employed by the Pittsburg Coal Company and had been confined to his ted for two weeks, the result of an accident in the mine. Last night Mrs. Barr went went to be a sight part of the mine. to the house of a neighbor, leaving her four children playing around the house, and when she returned at 8:30 o'clock she found her murdered husband, and is now raving crazy. The children knew nothing of the tragedy until their mother returned. Barr had been dragged from his bed after probably having been choked, as the condition of his throat showed, and then while held upon the

An attempt to blow up a ship in midocean has been reported by Capt. C. Touze, of the French ship Asnieres, which has arrived at San Francisco from Swansea, Wales, loaded with coal. He left that port in January last, and six weeks later, when far out at sea, a dozen capped fuses, such as are used by miners to explode charges of dynamite, were discovered in the hold of the ship among the coal. Had one of the fuse become ignited by a shock in a part of the hold where the coal gas had accumu-lated the ship would undoubtedly have been blown to atoms. Two or three of them had exploded, but fortunately at points where there was no gas, and consequently no damage was done. The presence of the fuses among the coal was discovered only by accident, when during some rough weather men were sent down into the hold to level the coal and

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of cas tor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the oldfashioned castor oil, and see hat it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of cestor oil, and the lisease may be checked in its incipiency and all danger avoided. The castor of and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trou le appears. This is the most suc cessful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in in case of cholera infantum. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co]
